THE NORTHERN LIGHT 1974

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2017 with funding from Boston Public Library

The Northern Light North Attleboro High School 1974 every person born into this world

represents something new something that never existed before

and unique

Two years ago you came to North Attleboro High School completely unknown to the Student Body. With enthusiasm and new ideas, you obtained the respect of the students and the administration so highly valued at North. Not only did you introduce original and interesting curriculum, but you offered field trips, and a humanities curriculum committee to draw more interest. As many may agree, understanding, leadership, fairness, and devotion were just a few of your extraordinary qualities. For your outstanding personality and perseverance the Senior Class would like to dedicate the 1974 Northern Light Yearbook to YOU, MR. VICTOR LISTER.

Administration And Faculty

Superintendent of Schools

To the Class of 1974;

America is making plans to celebrate its bicentennial. Relative to your own age that is a long span of time. It is relatively short, however, in this life of nations.

With so much accomplishment behind us, we have reason to be proud and to celebrate. But, reminded by the events of this past year that we are not perfect, we must make a new commitment to the ideals this still young nation claims to espouse. The irony of our present situation is that these wrong doings have been spawned by our success from the abuses of wealth and power by imperfect men.

Take every opportunity to learn what can be learned from our past and present history. Place this into a perspective for your own future. Try to know what Walt Whitman meant when he said: "Now understand me well . . . it is provided in the essence of things, that from any fruition of success no matter what, shall come forth something to make a greater struggle necessary."

William L. Kelly

Principal of North Attleboro High School LOUIS D. KELLEY

Class of 1974; Congratulations on being who you are, a unique human being capable of making a special contribution to your school and your community.

I don't have to remind you what the future holds in store for you. You know that life has responsibilities as well as rewards, failures as well as successes, tragedies as well as joy.

I am confident that your special qualities of mind, heart, and spirit will lead you toward the goals that you have set for yourselves. So as you go forward into life — take with you my best wishes and highest hopes.

Assistant Principal Mr. William S. Wassel

Class of 1974;

Personality — Oneness — Character — Originality — Doing one's own thing — all of these words or phrases describe the same important aspect in a person's life, that of individualism.

This self-identity is especially important to you as young people emerging from your adolescence into adulthood as you receive your hard-earned diplomas. Each of you has developed a unique personality and has established aspirations and goals in your lives whether they be to continue your formal education or begin training in your chosen field.

We, the Administration and staff of North Attleboro High School, hope that in the years you have spent in our school you have had many meaningful experiences. This knowledge we sincerely hope has helped develop the individualism that you possess.

In short, "do your own thing" but have some direction in your long-range plans.

In Memory of:

Michael Robert Petersen "Pete" 842 Mendon Rd.

"If it be his lot to go now, he will soon have a joyous meeting with many loved ones gone before, and where the rest of us, through the help of God, hope ere long to join them."

A student's death always deeply touches the hearts of his friends and his classmates.

On the students
Silence falls,
Their steps are slower
In the halls.
The news is told —
A student's death —
Made known with Weary, lowered breath.

Although the sadness never ceases, Over the years it slowly decreases, But the memory of "Pete" lingers forever.

To the Students and the Faculty of North Attleboro High School;

This is the last page of the 1974 Northern Light. As the members of the staff may agree it is probably the hardest year that they myself have ever had. I really can't believe that my work has been completed or that I was actually a large part of it. There were so m times when I thought that this yearbook would never become a reality and there were times when I was completely convinced that I we quit the very next day. The next day would always come around though, and it was interesting how I would always find myself back in 252 (The Yearbook Room). I must admit that I would never take on a job like this again, but I would be a liar if I said I didn't love it.

Even though each and every person may not like this year's Northern Light, I must tell you something that has been on my mind for a I time. I dedicated myself to the Northern Light since the spring of my junior year. I wanted this year's book to be the best — and it is there are many mistakes, however, I guarantee that the good out-weighs the bad. To be in command of fifty-four seniors offers no easy rebut watching my friends (and they are) create, design, and develop a book is more than any eighteen year old girl could ask for. My time was spent in a variety of ways; running down the halls, skipping classes to meet a deadline, guiding a photographer, finding people answering questions. The remaining part of the day would revolve around my home away from home, Rm. 252, piled up to my ears in wo

I can remember so many times when the pressures overcame my strength but not all my days resulted in disasters, especially today. Yetoday is the last deadline, all the pages have been sent to the publisher and the '74 Northern Light is finished!

If your curiosity is aroused when you see that fifty-four people were on the staff I don't blame you. Each of them contributed to the pucation in one way or another but there are a few people who did more than any one editor could ask. They were ALWAYS there who needed help. So, now I'd like to take this opportunity to thank; Pam and Pat Mackill, Dave and Dale Collard, Linda Fournier, Karen Simmo Paula Roy, Sue Sparague, Marsha Cotter, Diane Ouimet, Karen Slawson, John Levis from Taylor Yearbook Publishing Company, and advisor Mrs. Helen Mullen. The last and most important person concerned indirectly with the publication of the Northern Light is Co Salesses. I thank her for being a friend that not all people could have. There were so many times when she was cast into the shado forgotten, but whenever I needed someone to talk to, Cath was always there. As you may well imagine I had a fantastic group of people back me.

Being Editor-in-chief is only a name, it offers no rewards, no new friends or barrels of fun, but it does give one a feeling of triumph an special satsifaction known only to those who venture into such a world. I challenge you to attempt the job I have just completed. I congrelate you if you can improve this year's work, and most of all I admire you.

As expressed in the theme of the book, every person is an individual with their own values and drives. Thank-you for being the people are and remember to keep your own identity, because this is the person you were created to be.

The '74 Northern Light is a "Natural High."
